| Father, may Your Spirit come upon us as a nation so we may know and understand that as long as we are with You, You will be with us. If we become indifferent and forsake You, You will let us go our way. But when in our trouble we turn to You in desperation and earnestly seek You, You will find us. We will take courage when we hear these words, and put away our abominable idols and repair our altar of worship to You. May our nation enter into covenant with You to seek You, to yearn for You with all our souls. 2 Chronicles 15: 1-12 We ask that You will raise up Joshuas and Davids and Pauls, Deborahs and Esthers and Lydias-apostles, prophets, teachers, preachers, miracle workers, intercessors and administrators to bring hope and a future for Your kingdom rule, that Your will be done on earth in America as it is in Heaven. Joel 2:28-29, Isaiah 61:1, Esther 4:14 Father, may we be good stewards of the natural resources of our land, our monetary system, and the spiritual and natural gifts of our citizens. May we honor each life as sacred to You. Genesis 1-2 | Father I pray a blessing on all who strive to live good and decent lives. I praise You and thank You for all those who are good neighbors in our land, who give help and relief when needed, and attend to the needs of others before themselves. Isaiah 26:7 I declare blessings on the government, the business community, the medical community, the education community, the faith community and the community of artists and craftsmen. I pray blessings on the media, the entertainment, sports, and music communities. Psalm 104:24, Psalm 1:1-3 I declare that they will fulfill their dreams and giftings for what is beautiful, uplifting and good for the nation, and not be drawn away and enticed to base and wicked plans and schemes. Col. 3:17 Father I especially pray for the guidance and protection of our service men and women across the world, and I thank You for their heroism and bravery. I give thanks for those who have fought and died for liberty since our nation began. | Father, may the homes of our nation be dwelling places of Your glory. May all the children be taught of the Lord, and the peace of the children will be great. Isaiah 54:13 Father, I declare that the Ten Commandments will be honored as the highest divine and holy rule from God for public and private behavior, holding us to the standard of the plumbline of Your righteousness, O God. Ex. 20, Psalm 95:9-10 Father, we ask for Your forgiveness in the shedding of blood of other peoples for the purpose of selfishness, greed, power and unlawful gain. We repent for the sins of slavery and racism. We repent for the sin of the ungodly conquest and murder of the native tribes of this land. We repent for the sin of shedding innocent blood, and for giving Satan a foothold into the life of our nation through the heinous sin of sacrificing our children through abortion. We repent for the sin of allowing lustful, immoral soul pollution, wicked speech, and violence in full expression before our children's eyes and ears. I declare that you will raise up restorers of these breaches in our nation! Isaiah 58:12 | Father, I give thanks to You for founding our nation under Your sovereignty. I thank you for our Godly heritage as a nation. I thank You for every leader and citizen who came before us who has followed Your will in taking courageous stands for righteousness and justice. Proverbs 28:1-2 Father, I declare that our government servants will be of the same mind and united in spirit. May they walk in a manner worthy of their calling, with all humility, showing kindness to one another, being diligent to preserve unity, for Your Word declares that unity commands a blessing. Eph 3:12-13, Psalm 133:1 I pray, Father, that as our nation's leaders decide and vote on legislation, that they would not lean unto their own understanding, but would acknowledge You in all their ways. Proverbs 3:5-6 Father, I pray that You remove wicked counselors from these leaders in authority. Give the leaders supernatural wisdom to discern any evil schemes of the enemies of our country, from within and without. Surround the leaders with Godly counselors of a pure heart. Proverbs 24: 6 | Father, I pray that the citizens of our nation would not be enticed by human wisdom but would come to honor Jesus, the image of You, the invisible God. In Him are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. We pray that we will honor the freedom and privilege we have to vote for our leaders. May we be faithful to educate ourselves on the candidates and the issues. May we be wise as serpents and innocent as doves as we stand on guard against the enemies of our nation. May we come to realize that we are not warring against flesh and blood, but spiritual forces of wickedness in high places. May we pray at all times and in all seasons. Isaiah 29:15 | Father I pray that Your people, who are called by Your name, will humble themselves, and pray, and seek Your face and turn from their wicked ways. Then You will hear from heaven and forgive our sin, and heal our land. 2 Chronicles 7:14 May the stadiums and public places of our nation be filled with the sound of worship. May the people shout a great shout when they praise the Lord. May they weep for repentance, and may the shout of joy and the sound of weeping be heard afar in our land! Joel 2:11-32 | I thank You, Father, for Your merciful kindness by which You exert Your holy influence on souls to turn them to Christ. For You say, I have listened and heeded to your call, and I have helped you on the day of deliverance. Behold now is truly the time for a gracious welcome and acceptance; I declare that NOW is the day of SALVATION! 2 Corinthians 6:1-2 Salvation is nearer to us than when we believed.
